

Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Girls' School, Khonsa

Norms for Fixing Fees:

Ramakrishna Sarada Mission is a Charitable residential institution catering to the educational needs of the Tribal (girl) students of Arunachal Pradesh for their all-round development since 1973.

From 1973 to 1997 no fees was charged. Everything from daily essentials to uniform, hostel dress, text books and stationery was supplied free of cost. However, from 1998 very nominal School development charges were levied. Gradually, the fee structure was raised. However no admission fees, tuition fees are charged for hostellers. Text books, uniform, hostel dress, text books and stationery are supplied free of cost.

The School Development charges for Tirap District (which is slightly backward compared to the other districts) is slightly lower compared to that for Other District students, as reflected in the Fee structure.
